

"Cities are living organisms that change overtime"

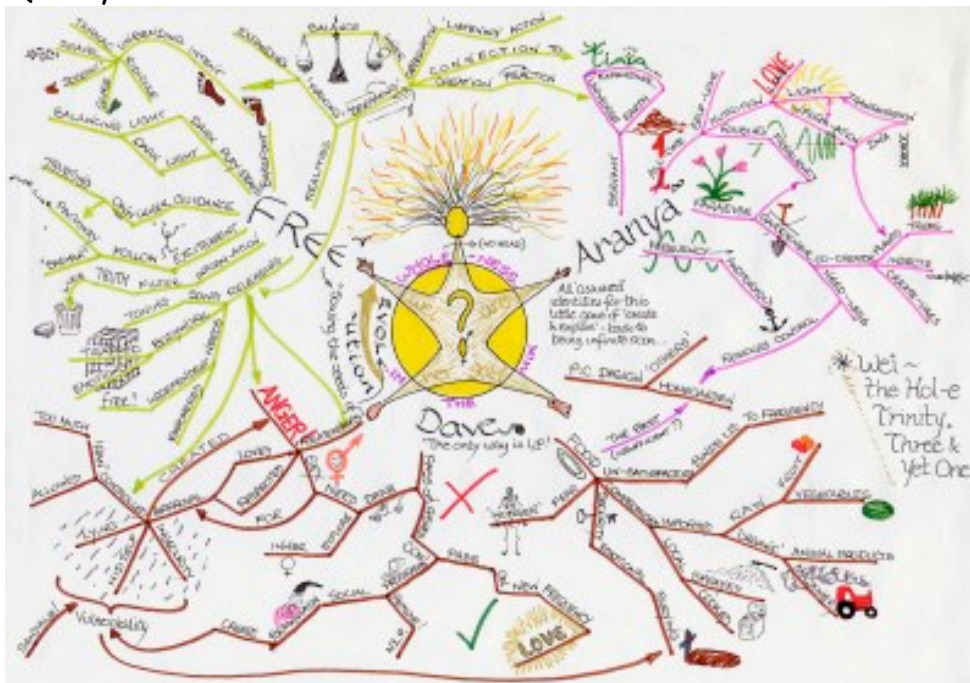

Why do people live where they do? (Visual-spatial Intelligence)

What keeps people in urbanized areas once these develop?

What would influence different people to live where they do?

Hand drawn or computer generated is fine.

Quality is what matters!

<http://www.imindmap.com/>

<http://www.bubbl.us/>

<http://www.xmind.net/>

Assessment Criteria-Year 7. A Trail of Two Cities

Criterion D: Organization & Presentation.

Demonstrate your ability to organize and present information and ideas.

Level /8	TASK: Japan's capital city moved from Kyoto to Tokyo in the Edo period
7-8	My information is always relevant. My Mind Map is very well developed and logical. The presentation of my MindMap is clear, concise and highly effective. All sources of information are referenced completely correctly.
5-6	My information is relevant. My Mind Map is well developed and logical. The presentation of my Mind Map is mostly clear, concise and effective. All sources of information are referenced correctly with very few errors.
3-4	My information is mostly relevant. My Mind Map is has some structure but is a little confusing or illogical. The presentation of my Mind Map is mostly clear, concise and effective. Most sources of information are referenced but with several errors.
1-2	My information is not always relevant. My Mind Map is lacks structure and is little confusing or illogical. The presentation of my Mind Map is unclear and poorly designed. Most sources of information are referenced but with several errors.